

READING IS FOR SUPERHEROS

The Winged Reader

An Arrowhead Library System Mascot. Graphics by Dan Schultz.

Da Schtick -

Who is the Winged Reader?

A tireless crusader for books and reading.

What does the WR do?

The WR is on a relentless search to find and help the non-reader.

Where can you see the Winged Reader?

This elusive superhero appears out of no where to encourage kids of all ages to Read!

Motto suggestion:

"Readers are Superheroes!" or

"Books are for Superheroes!"

The Real Scoop -

The Winged Reader (WR) is a mascot of the Arrowhead Library System. The purpose of the WR is to make promotion of reading fun for young and old alike.

Our goal is to have a pool of volunteers (do you have the "right stuff") who will wear the costume and interact with children and adults encouraging reading for fun and pleasure. Stickers, coloring sheets, or *bookmarks will be handed out at most occasions.

*The bookmark will be 2 sided with libraries names and phone # and addresses. "Library cards are easy to get and are free!" Other side will be WR!

The Costume -

This great costume is in red, silver and blue. It includes:

Cape • 2 stretch spandex (?) Body suits - small/med -

multicolored in purples/pinks • Wind pants - med

Face mask - soft • Cowl • 2-arm gauntlets

2-spats • Belt with WR in lettering

Note: you may wear any reddish purple pinky thing under the cape. Spandex is not required. :o)

Schedule an appointment with Martha Gammons to see all the stuff and talk about how you can use it at your library!

Holy Bookworm!

Who is that carrying a book with a smile on his face?

That's the Winged Reader!

A tireless crusader for books and reading.

What does he do?

The WR is on a relentless search to find and help the non-reader.

Where can I see the Winged Reader?

This elusive superhero appears out of no where to encourage kids of all ages to Read!

Watch for the Winged Reader at your library!

The Winged Reader
Arrowhead Library System
Superhero & Mascot • 758-6690